

Audrey's enormous RV (Left) and Dan & Nikkie's tiny RV \(aka Baby Gazzler\) (Right)

This was our very first camping trip and we had a great time. We arrived at the Johnson's Ranch Friday night, and headed off to Thousands Trail on Saturday morning. Once we got settled in and got our RV's all hooked up, we had a BBQ lunch and then headed off to see the San Benito Fair. The Model T Club was there right in the middle of the fair to greet us. This was our first time at this fair and we enjoyed seeing all the livestock as well as the arts and crafts. We called it a day and headed back to the RV park to eat dinner and play some games. We went back to the fair to watch the truck and tractor pull. We wrapped up the night by enjoying the wildlife and played some more fun games before turning in.

Thank you, Audrey, for making our first camping trip fun and memorable. Dan & I plan to use our new Ford (at least it's on a Ford Chassis) more often in a few years and hope to visit all the National parks within the 50 states. For now, we look forward to our next camping trip to Chico next weekend.
